Privacy policy

Version 1.0 · effective from 30 June 2026

This privacy policy describes how personal data is processed in connection with using the skyray.pl website and contacting us.

Data controller

The data controller is EnviSense dr Barbara Mirośław, ul. B. Głowackiego 35, 20-060 Lublin, Poland — the Polish representative of Skyray Instrument. For data-protection matters please contact info@envisense.eu.

What data we process

We process data you provide voluntarily in the contact form or a request for quotation (including name, email address, phone number, company name and message content), as well as technical data collected automatically while you use the site (cookies — see the Cookie policy available on the website).

Purposes and legal bases

- Handling enquiries and preparing quotations — based on taking steps at the data subject's request before entering into a contract and on the controller's legitimate interest (Art. 6(1)(b) and (f) GDPR).
- Performing contracts, service and deliveries — performance of a contract (Art. 6(1)(b) GDPR).
- Meeting legal obligations (e.g. tax) — Art. 6(1)(c) GDPR.

Recipients and retention

Data may be entrusted to providers supporting us in IT, accounting and logistics, only to the extent necessary. We retain data for as long as needed to achieve the above purposes and for the period required by law.

Your rights

You have the right to access your data, to rectify, erase or restrict its processing, to object to processing, to data portability and to lodge a complaint with the President of the Polish Personal Data Protection Office (UODO).
